A NEWSLETTER FOR THE G/L/B/T COMMUNITY AND FRIENDS

Fire Destroys Des Moines GLRC

UPDATE: The GLRC of Cedar Rapids has been taking donations from you the Community for the Des Moines GLRC over the past two months. We are proud to announce that we have collected approximately $150.00. This is outstanding. The Cedar Rapids GLRC plans to discuss at the September board meeting what they feel the GLRC of Cedar Rapids is going to contribute to Des Moines GLRC and will decide when we are going to present them with our Communities donations. Details will be in the September issue of the Resource Line.

Saturday night, June 3rd, 2000 an electrical fire broke out in the basement of the GLRC in Des Moines 414 East 5th Street. Patrons of the Blazing Saddle, the business that is next door to the Des Moines GLRC, smelled the smoke, discovered the fire and called in the Alarm. There were no injuries as result of the fire, but there was extensive damage done to building from the water and smoke.

The GLRC's Board of Director's held an emergency meeting on Sunday morning to assess the damage. Board members believe that they should be able to salvage their library books, some furniture, and possibly their new computer. The fire department had to tear out some walls, and parts of their ceiling. The GLRC Board members are searching for a temporary location, as they aren't going to be able to return to the current location any time soon.

The Des Moines GLRC still has their phone line and website www.glrc-dsm.org in service, and will still continue to function while they are in this transition phase. The Board of directors has also decided that they will kick off a campaign to raise funds for a new permanent home for the Des Moines GLRC

The GLRC of Des Moines would like to thank all the volunteers who helped in the cleanup Saturday

June 10th. "It was a true showing of the solidarity of our community. We had a caravan of pickups trooping to the storage unit which got packed pretty full. There were also visits to the Dump. After several hours of determined work, we had the place cleaned out, and finished off some delicious doughnuts and later, Pizza. Thanks to all who provided the refreshments as well. It was hot and

GLRC Pride Picnic Saturday, July 15th

SUCCESS

The GLRC Pride Picnic fundraiser was a great success. There were about 150 people present. The dunk tank was a great fundraiser raising over $150.00. The annual auction was also a great success. The GLRC raised over $1600.00 in profits from this year's pride picnic. The weather was more than cooperative as in years past. Everyone who attended had a great time.

The GLRC provided Chicken, Hotdogs, Hamburgers, buns, and condiments, and you the Community brought lots of side dishes. The food was great and the side dishes were abundant. Thank you again to everyone, and we hope to see all of you at next years picnic.

The GLRC would like to say thank you to all who attended, volunteers who gave up their time to assist in making the picnic a great success. ALSO a special thank you to everyone who provided the GLRC with Auction items.

An Evening at Ausadie a Great Success

By Phil Nickerson

The inaugural GLRC event, Evening at Ausadie was a huge hit for all those who attended. Evening at Ausadie was a classy, yet casual, fundraiser cocktail party for the GLRC's Building CommUNITY 2000 campaign.

The setting was a beautifully landscaped yard that adjoins the Ausadie Apartment Building. The pool was sparkling. Each table was dressed with a white tablecloth and a bright colored skirt (each table had a different color of the rainbow,) and beautiful bouquets of flowers on each table. The Daugherty/McPartland Group played the music from the gazebo. The hors d'oeuvres were excellent and the drinks refreshing.

People started arriving about 7:00pm, with a majority of the people arriving between 7:30 and 8:00. Total, approximately 125 showed up. At press time, total figures had not been tallied for the total amount raised from this event.

Over all, people seemed to be pleasantly surprised by the entire event. There was much speculation as to how the event would be pulled off. All comments at the party were great. Everyone appeared to have a wonderful time socializing and listening to the music. There were even a handful of guests who danced to the music! It was great to see so many new faces to the GLRC at this event. An Evening at Ausadie went over so well, that the owners of the Ausadie Apartment building offered the location for next year!

We truly want to thank everyone who helped out by donated or discounted items for this event, donated time, and everyone who attended. All had a good time, and we look forward to making the Second Annual Evening at Ausadie bigger and better for next year!

AA Meetings at the GLRC

The GLRC has had a great amount of response to our inquiry to the community regarding having an AA meeting located at the GLRC. August meetings have been scheduled on Friday evenings from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. Please call the GLRC at 319-366-2055.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our purpose is to provide an information and referral center for the mutual support of gays, lesbians, bisexuals, transgendered persons, their families, friends, allies and the community at large.

sweaty but well worth the effort (all innuendoes aside *wink*). Now we just need some angel to step forward with a new location for a Center! Thanks again, everyone."

There are only two Gay, and Lesbian Resource Centers in the state of Iowa one being here in Cedar Rapids and the other in Des Moines. The GLRC of Cedar Rapids took donations at Iowa City's Pride Festival Saturday June 17th, and will present this to the Des Moines GLRC. Should you want to make a donation to the Des Moines GLRC please send donations to P.O. Box 7008 Des Moines, Iowa 50309. Note your donation is to help in rebuilding their GLRC. Lets show Des Moines Center we care and support their efforts just as we do ours.

GLRC Special Election

The GLRC still has one vacant board seat that we are looking to fill to have a full board. A special election is being held at the September 6th General meeting. If you are interested in filling this GLRC Board of Directors seat or know of someone that you would like to nominate, come on down to the GLRC September 6th General meeting @ 7:00 p.m.

Gill Foundation Grant Update!

Gay Men Retreat to the Woods

For the second year in a row, gay and bisexual men are invited to spend a day in the woods near Cedar Rapids.

The occasion is the second annual Lives Worth Living retreat, taking place Saturday, October 7.

Like last year's event, which attracted participants from across Eastern and Central Iowa, the getaway takes place at Pinicon Ridge Park near Central City, 12 miles north of Cedar Rapids.

Sponsors include Rapids AIDS Project, Legion Arts, the Gay & Lesbian Resource Center, and the Linn County Health Department.

The day's program is designed to provide networking opportunities in a relaxed, informal setting, and to provide participants with a variety of social, cultural and political resources.

Gay performance artist Paul Bonin Rodriguez also appears at CSPS October 6-7

The featured presenter this year is Paul Bonin Rodriguez, an actor, dancer and playwright from San Antonio, Texas.

Paul first received national recognition for "The Texas Trinity," three solo performances about a young man coming to terms with his sexual identity. Touring the show since 1992, he has appeared across the nation and in Canada. A dancer and choreographer, he is a founder of the San Antonio Dance Umbrella and Jump Start Performance Company. Recent projects include "Quinceanera," a multi-disciplinary celebration of surviving the first 15 years of the AIDS pandemic, created in collaboration with Michael Martinez, Danny Zaldivar and Beto Araiza. Currently he is working on a novel called "Higher Planes."

The day's program also features Kevin Sitter, coordinator for Clinic 42 at Abbott Northwestern Hospital in Minneapolis.

With a background in social work and public health, Kevin has directed a variety of community programs serving gay men, high school students, health care workers, and people living with HIV/AIDS. He has published over 50 articles on such topics as coming out, gay men's health issues, and taking care of people with AIDS.

Cost for the retreat is $10, which covers all materials and lunch. Pre-registration is required. For more information or registration materials, call Rapids AIDS Project at (319) 393-9579.

CSPS Welcomes Gay, Lesbian Performance Artists this Fall

San Antonio performance artist Paul Bonin Rodriguez will present his acclaimed new show, "Memory's Caretaker," at CSPS Friday and Saturday, October 6 and 7.

An autobiographical take on growing up in Texas, the performance reflects the artist's experience as the gay son of French and Mexican parents.

Already a hit in Texas, Boston and North Carolina, "Memory's Caretaker" has been described as "a journey through one family's multi-cultural and multi-sexual identities, expressed in silences, then rediscovered in telling."

The script weaves together tales about Bonin Rodriguez's relationship with his grandmother, as well as stories of the other gay men in his family, including an uncle who disappeared, and an ex-gay brother who has converted to fundamentalist Christianity.

The following week-end, Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14, finds CSPS hosting Holly Hughes, an award-winning performer, writer and activist, and one of the best-known lesbians in America.

The controversial Hughes was previously seen at CSPS with her performance "Clit Notes," presented to sold-out audiences.

In her new piece, "Preaching to the Perverted," she takes viewers on a hilarious, inspiring tour of the dark side of democracy. Stops include the United States Supreme Court to hear a suit she and three other artists filed against the government, a backstage visit with the Teletubbies; a delicious Salisbury steak supper at the Kiwanis Club of Saginaw, Michigan; and "everything from lesbian chic to the Monica Lewinsky flap."

Controversial lesbian artist Holly Hughes to visit Cedar Rapids in October

According to a Raleigh-Durham Spectator review of the show, "Hughes was a scream from her first few moments on stage. A gifted comedian, she has a fresh and very funny point of view, and her wry observations on contemporary society appeal to a wider audience than she might imagine."

As a contemporary arts center committed to diversity, CSPS frequently presents performers, musicians and visual artists whose work deals with GLBT themes.

To keep up with goings on at CSPS, visit their Web site at . To receive weekly updates via e-mail, send a request to or call CSPS at (319) 364-1580.

GLRC at Indigo Girls Concert

By Chris Taylor and Phil Nickerson

The Gay & Lesbian Resource Center of Cedar Rapids played a VISIBLE role in the Indigo Girls concert held June 28, 2000 at the Paramount Theatre. The Indigo Girls allowed the GLRC to set up at table in the "Hall of Mirrors" lobby of the Paramount Theatre.

The table was decorated with a big rainbow flag, which grabbed the attention of many as they walked in the door. We also put up a couple of the GLRC Building CommUNITY logo posters and a small rainbow flag behind the table on the wall.

Information at the table included: July issues of Resource Line, Building Community 2000 Brochures, YPA Brochures, and HRC Coming Out Resource Guides.

Our estimate of the number of people who stopped to chat or take materials was approximately 150 people. Our numbers for visibility and awareness were close to 1500.

Thanks to thank Barry Randall and Dave Shafer for the idea of contacting the Indigo Girls and for doing all the legwork to make this happen! It was a GREAT opportunity for our Center. We are looking forward to doing this with other GLBT friendly groups.

Protections for Transgendered Workers on the Rise in State and Local Governments

WASHINGTON - Laws banning employment discrimination against transgendered workers are on the upswing, with 31 state and local governments providing some form of protection for gender-variant people, according to research by the Human Rights Campaign's WorkNet.

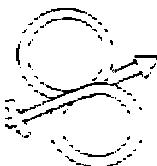

Two states (Iowa and Minnesota), the District of Columbia and 29 municipalities have extended protections to transgendered and gender-variant people either through legislation or executive order. More than 20 localities have acted since 1997. The list includes such major cities as San Francisco; Seattle, Wash.; New Orleans, La.; and Pittsburgh, Pa.; as well as smaller cities such as Toledo, Ohio; York, Pa.; Louisville, Ky.; and Iowa City, Iowa. Minneapolis became the first jurisdiction to enact such protections in 1975.

All 31 state and local governments provide protections from discrimination based on gender identity to employees in their public workforces and all but five extend protections to employees in the private sector as well. For instance, in Iowa, only state employees are protected by an executive order outlawing discrimination based on "gender identity" which Democratic Gov. Tom Vilsack signed in 1999. The action made Iowa the first state to extend such protection by executive order. In Minnesota, the statewide civil rights law bans discrimination in both public and private employment.

Wording of the statutes differs significantly across jurisdictions, meaning the level of protection that they offer differs as well. For example, Olympia, Wash., defines gender identity as "the status of being transsexual, transvestite or transgender," while Ann Arbor, Mich., takes a broader approach, defining gender identity as a "person's actual or perceived gender, including a person's "gender identity", self-image, appearance, expression or behavior, whether or not that gender identity, self-image, appearance, expression or behavior is different from that traditionally associated with person's sex at birth as being either female or male."

"Arguably, a more broadly worded statute offers better protection for gender-variant people who may not self-identify as transgendered but who do not fully conform to socially constructed gender roles, said Chad Cronon, HRC's WorkNet Fellow, who researched laws pertaining to gender identity. Some activists point out that the broad definitions provide better protections for lesbian and gay employees as well.

"Although often considered a transgender issue, this is also crucial for thousands of gay, lesbian and bisexual employees as well who don't conform to gender-based stereotypes," Riki Wilchins, executive director of GenderPAC, told WorkAlert. GenderPAC is a national organization that works to ensure free expression of gender orientation. "This [kind of law] protects both Dana Rivers, a transgender teacher fired from her job, as well as a lesbian professional who prefers a suit and slacks to high heels and skirt."

National News

Excerpt taken from Datalounge.com

Pentagon Moves to Stem Anti-Gay Harassment

WASHINGTON - The Pentagon on Friday issued a report criticizing the military's implementation of its "don't ask, don't tell, don't pursue" policy on gays and vowed the implementation of a services-wide training program to combat harassment of lesbian and gay troops, the Washington Post reports. At a Pentagon news conference, Bernard Rostker, undersecretary of defense for personnel and readiness, said the new training will be aimed at preventing abuses of "don't ask" regulations. "The question, 'Are you homosexual?' is never in order, Ever," the Post quotes Rostker as saying. "The days of the witch hunt, the days of stakeouts, are over."

A military survey conducted this spring by the Defense Department's inspector general found that harassment of gay men and lesbians is widely tolerated in the U.S. Military, with 80 percent of those questioned reporting having heard anti-gay slurs within the previous year.

On orders from Defense Secretary William Cohen, the Defense Department sent a 13-point "action plan" to the armed services calling for new top-to-bottom training to curb jokes, slurs or violence against those even perceived as being gay or lesbian.

Warren Mother Appeals for Hate Crimes Passage

WASHINGTON — Brenda Warren, the bereaved mother of Arthur "J.R." Warren, a gay 26-year-old from Grant

Town, W.Va., spoke to a 100-person gathering at Senate Park Thursday, demanding justice for her son in the form of stronger federal hate-crimes legislation.

"Hate kills," the Washington Post quotes Mrs. Warren. "The injustice that my son suffered, no one — no one — should ever have to bear that. If nothing else, I just want to say please, please, let it be the last time."

On Thursday, Deputy U.S. Attorney General Eric H. Holder Jr. announced that the Justice Department had opened a preliminary investigation into J.R. Warren's death.

Holder told representatives from the Human Rights Campaign, the NAACP and the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, his office had been spurred to action on the basis of "an informative, disturbing and emotional meeting about a senseless and brutal killing."

Warren's July 4th murder has drawn national attention, with rights activists citing similarities to the 1998 murder of Matthew Shepard, a gay Wyoming college student, and the racially motivated dragging death the same year of James Byrd Jr. in Jasper, Tex. The slayings have spurred a movement for stronger federal hate-crime legislation.

The bill, approved by an unexpectedly wide margin in the U.S. Senate last June, adds gender, sexual orientation and disability to current federal hate crime statutes. It is awaiting a vote in the House of Representatives.

Eminem and MTV Confront Anti-Gay Charges

NEW YORK — The current issue of Rolling Stone features a lengthy feature on Eminem's best-selling 'The Marshall Mathers LP,' and the controversy surrounding what the magazine calls its "relentless" homophobia and misogyny.

The magazine reports that MTV, an organization instrumental in Eminem's rise, is reconsidering its support given the escalating controversy. The Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation recently released a statement saying 'The Marshall Mathers LP' "contains the most blatantly offensive, homophobic lyrics we have seen in many years."

Idaho Public Television Under Conservative Fire

BOISE, Id. — Idaho Public Television is being threatened with a cut-off of state funding and government control of its content over its airing last September of "It's Elementary: Talking About Gay Issues in School," the Salt Lake Tribune reports.

Conservative Republicans allied with the Idaho Christian Coalition and the Idaho Family Forum teamed up to establish oversight of Idaho Public

TV's programming schedule to ensure it does not violate what are being loosely defined as "community standards."

Backlash Against Boy Scouts Gains Momentum

BOSTON — ABC News reports on the escalating backlash against the Boy Scouts of America, prompted by the national leadership's decision to fight for the right to openly discriminate against gay people in its ranks.

That effort to secure a legal gay ban — affirmed in a split decision by the U.S. Supreme Court last month — is becoming a real and growing threat to the organization as members, lawmakers and funding agencies are pressing demands that the policy be abandoned.

Transgender Activists Solicit Gay Support

Thursday, 20 July 2000

SACRAMENTO, Ca. — The Associated Press reports that the transgender community is making a concerted effort to put members of the lesbian, gay and bisexual communities more at ease with their presence and to enjoin them in their fight for justice and equality.

"We're feeling a little marginalized," said Dana Rivers, a teacher and a male-to-female transsexual told the news agency. "The movement is struggling to find a place."

Gay rights advocates say transgendered people are frequently the targets of discrimination in employment and health care, and because of their appearance, more frequent targets of intimidation and violence.

Anti-discrimination laws which have won endorsement in states and cities all over the country often don't include them. After all, said Graham Segroves, spokesman for the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, there are "transphobic" people in the gay community as well as the general public.

International Adoption Treaty Clears House

WASHINGTON — The House of Representatives on Tuesday approved legislation necessary for the U.S. to ratify an international treaty on foreign adoptions, ending months of conservative objections on the issue of gay adoptions.

For months, Republican Rep. Christopher H. Smith of New Jersey has demanded the inclusion of a measure that would sharply curtail overseas adoptions by gay men and lesbians and people who "engage in promiscuous sexual activity."

AND, IN IOWA

Tully Calls GOP's D.C. Style Politics Out of Touch

Des Moines- Iowa Democratic Party Chair Rob Tully today called on Iowa GOP lawmakers who filed a frivolous lawsuit against Governor Tom Vilsack to end their ugly D.C.-style political shenanigans.

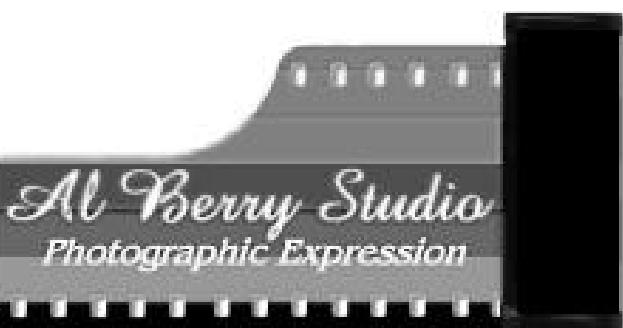

"Special prosecutors, special interests, secret slush funds, coupled with an extreme right wing agenda - it all looks pretty familiar. We've seen these underhanded tactics coming out of the Beltway," said Tully. "There is no room for these political shenanigans in Iowa. Fair-minded, honest Iowans deserve better than this."

Stew Iverson and 22 other Republican legislators filed a lawsuit against the governor July 12. Exactly two weeks prior, June 26, the Iowa Liberty Foundation registered itself with the Secretary of State as a nonprofit corporation organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes. The Iowa Liberty Foundation is financing the lawsuit against the governor, and board members have refused to disclose the names and addresses of contributors.

"In a matter of two weeks, the GOP formed a group to create a secret slush fund and filed a pro-discriminatory lawsuit against the governor. This is not Iowa honesty. If the GOP wants to play dirty political games they can move to D.C. with Dan Burton and Trent Lott," said Tully.

"This is just one more episode that proves how out of touch the GOP is with Iowa's common sense values. There is nothing honest or fair about this fake group these GOP legislators formed to discredit the governor," said Tully. "Because of their underhanded tactics, they'll get what they deserve in November."
